Master Course on Oral Cancer Management 2018

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to the 'Master Course on Oral Cancer Management 2018' organized by the Head and Neck Disease Management Group at the Tata Memorial Hospital in Mumbai.

This annual multi-disciplinary mega-event is to be held from 27th - 29th July, 2018 at the Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai.

This conference is designed to provide an overview of oral cancer and functional treatment outcomes. This will be covered in the form of live surgical demonstrations, didactic lectures, interactive discussions and panels. This course is intended for postgraduate students, residents, fellows and consultants in ENT, oral and maxillofacial surgery, general surgery and surgical oncology.

As a part of the conference we would like to invite you to join our Live surgical demonstration on 27th July 2018. We have team of renowned Head & Neck surgeons who will be demonstrating surgeries.

We have a hands-on Cadaver Dissection workshop planned on 29th July, where participants will be trained in common oral cancer surgery procedures. We look forward to your active participation in this interactive academic feast.
